ABOUT ME

Hello There, I'm Hannah!! I am a Travel & Lifestyle Content Creator based in Philadelphia, PA, where I live with my sweet dog (and sometimes adventure co-parter) Koa!

I have dedicated my life to travel, hospitality, food, and tourism; which started from a very young age, moving across the Atlantic to Belgium. A spark ignited that day that never left - instead of reading fairytales I opted for an atlas and whatever geography books I could get my hands on. Fast forward about 5 years, I got my first event digital camera and haven't stopped capturing moments and memories since!

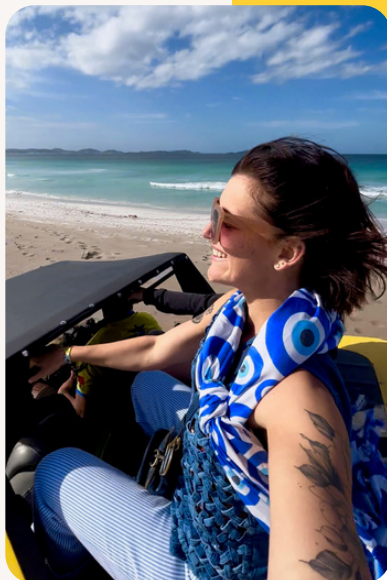

I have over 10+ experience working for hotels & hospitality venues, giving me first hand knowledge what gets clients from the initial prospect to booking.

My content expertise is in travel content hotels, destinations, food & restaurants, as well as various retail, clothing, and wellness/ makeup brands.

When I am not traveling, you can find me taking a yoga or pilates class, at circus school, taking a long run through the city, or trying to find the best coffees and Happy Hours in Philly.

I look forward to working with you!
